Thanks Rebecca. I think we may now be in some flux bc of the lack of congressionals who will actually be in the area tomorrow. I think only Sen Gardner will be there. We'll need to send notifications to staff of course but I think we need more details on the sched. So maybe we just do that in the morning? Laura let me know if you disagree.

I have already been in contact with Bennet, Tipton's and Gardner's DC folks to let them know that the sched is still in flux and we would get them something as soon as we can.

Hi Melissa,

Here are the local Congressional contacts that I can work with this evening (I have not confirmed availability, but will assume they will be checking email/voicemail regularly) to help coordinate any meetings tomorrow. I will first contact the Local Office Staff (highlighted in yellow). If I am not successful in getting the local staff person to help me coordinate, I will then contact the State Lead Staff (highlighted in green).

I would like to give heads up phone calls to the local staff as soon as possible. Please let me know when we have enough information and definitive plans in place for me to make those preliminary heads-up phone calls.

Colorado Senator Michael Bennet

Local Office Staff:

I think you have this, but I thought I'd ensure you have the D.C. contacts. I highlighted the Chief of staff for each in blue, as they are probably the best contact for you.
